"Merchant of Venice."
Don't forget the "Merchant of Venice," to be given here about Thanksgiving. It is all home talent, and will be greatly enjoyed.

Pretty Afternoon Tea.
Misses Susan and Amelia Milward, of Lexington, entertained with a pretty afternoon tea Monday, at their home on West Second street, in honor of Madame Hiddings, of Washington, D. C., who is visiting their mother, Mrs. Kate Milward, this week. The guests were asked for an informal afternoon to meet Madame Hiddings, and about forty friends were present. The occasion was greatly enjoyed and tea, wafers, ices and cakes were served. Miss Susan Milward wore a lovely afternoon toilette of pink crepe de chine, and Miss Amelia Milward wore pale blue crepe de chine. Receiving with them were: Madame Hiddings, who was handsomely gowned in blue, and Mrs. Milward, in black; Miss Ethel Witherspoon, of Versailles, and Miss Frances Frazee. The tea was one of the many pretty compliments paid to Madame Hiddings, which have been given by her friends here and elsewhere in Kentucky, and the hours were delightfully spent.

THORNTON PHILLIPS GOES TO TEXAS.

Will Choose Location and Probably Settle in the Lone Star State.

Mr. Thornton L. Phillips, left yesterday for San Antonio, Texas, with the purpose of seeking a permanent location. For some months Mr. Phillips has been studying conditions in several districts of Texas and New Mexico, and has been attracted from Kentucky by what he regards as exceptional opportunities in agriculture.

From first impressions Mr. Phillips thinks that he will locate in the Bermuda Colony, Dunwith county, and engage in vegetable and fruit culture. The land is fertile, black soil well adapted to the production of cotton, alfalfa, cane and grains and it may raise some cotton. Truck farming is already being extensively engaged in. Mrs. Phillips will join him when he has decided upon a location and they expect to make their future home in Texas.

CORRIGAN HORSES TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION.

Announcement Made of Dispersal Sale to Be Made on November 25.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 18.—The announcement was made last night that on November 25, Mr. Edward Corrigan will sell at public auction, all the thoroughbred horses he now has. Mr. Corrigan before leaving for Chicago yesterday interviewed Mr. Thomas F. Kelly, representative of the Fasig-Tipton Company, as to whether they would arrange a sale for him on November 25.

A telegram was received last night from President Ed. Tipton accepting the proposition and stating that the sale will follow the annual Kentucky sales of the Fasig-Tipton Company here next week.

Mr. Corrigan now owns about 100 horses including his stable in training, stallions, mares and yearlings. He has been weeding out the old mares in his stud for some time and only the young mare are left. These are the pick of the stud and are in foal to the stallions imp. Marta Santa, McGee and Ormiant. There are about 4 mares, 25 horses in training and 34 yearlings and four imported stallions.

MISSIONARY RALLY HELD IN LEXINGTON

Rev. J. H. Mac Neill, of Winchester, Delivers Address in Broadway Church.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 18.—A religious rally was held yesterday afternoon and last night at the Broadway Christian church in the interest of the Foreign Missionary Society. Large audiences attended each session and the rally was considered a success by those taking part in it.

Prof. A. McLean, of Cincinnati president of the Foreign Missionary Society, conducted the meeting. Two missionaries from China were present and their addresses were interesting. Other addresses delivered were by Rev. J. H. Mac Neill, of Winchester; Rev. I. J. Spencer, of the Central Christian church, and Prof. H. L. Calhoun, of Transylvania University.

TO RAISE $100,000 FOR MONUMENT TO CLEVELAND.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 18.—The Cleveland Memorial Association, recently organized, voted at a meeting to immediately incorporate and to raise by popular subscription in the State a fund of $100,000 to erect a memorial to the late Grover Cleveland at Princeton. Former United States Senator John E. Dryden is president of the association. Fifty leading citizens of the State will be named as incorporators, and committees to solicit contributions will be selected in each of twenty-one counties throughout the State.

DESTRUCTIVE FOREST FIRE.

SHARPSBURG, Ky., Nov. 18.—A most destructive fire has been burning in the woods of the eastern part of this county, devastating acres of fine forest trees. It also spread over the bluegrass fields of H. C. Gudgeon that had become very dry by the lack of rain, and destroyed several large haystacks, a quantity of cordwood and young timber and a lot of fencing, damaging him hundreds of dollars.

BROUGHT A GOLD BRICK FROM ALASKA.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky., Nov. 18.—John A. Webb is here from Cape Nome, Alaska, where he has been very successful the past year in his search for gold. He brought home a ten-pound gold brick, worth $2,500, and a "nest egg," the value of which is $500. One of Mr. Webb's mines has yielded him a handsome fortune this year. He was accompanied by his mining partner, Otto Halla, an Australian, who is on his way home after an absence of sixteen years. Mr. Halla also carried a number of gold specimens as an evidence of their success in the gold fields.
